The introduction:

Alleluia, Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed, Alleluia

Light a candle

The light of Christ rises in glory,
overcoming the darkness of sin and death.

Christ is our light!

A light no darkness can overcome.

The light of Christ has come into the world,
to shine upon us, and to guide our feet on the path of peace,
Alleluia! Christ is risen.

He is risen indeed. Alleluia

Saying sorry:

O my God, I thank you for loving me. I am sorry for all I have done that may have offended you, for not loving others and not loving you. Help me to live like Jesus, to love you always and then do with me what you will. Amen

Collect:

God of glory,
by the raising of your Son
you have broken the chains of death and hell:
fill your Church with faith and hope;
for a new day has dawned
and the way to life stands open in our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Gospel Reading:

Matthew 28: 1-10

Prayers:

In joy and hope let us pray to the Father.
That our risen Saviour may fill us with the joy of his glorious and life-giving resurrection ...
we pray to the Father.

Hear our prayer.

Pray for the world, for the church, for our government and leaders, our community, our families, those who are sick, and those who have died

Heavenly Father,
you have delivered us from the power of darkness
and brought us into the kingdom of your Son:
grant that, as his death has recalled us to life,
so his continual presence in us may raise us to eternal joy;
through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

Jesus Christ, my Lord and my God, at this time, I cannot receive you in the sacrament of Holy Communion,
but I desire with all my heart to receive you into my soul.
Come now, I pray, and visit me spiritually within my heart.

Pause for reflection on the reality of Christ's presence.

Fill me with your life divine,
that I may be wholly united to you.
Never let me be separated from you, and, by your grace assist me always to be your true and loving servant. Amen
