

St. Mary's Church Halesworth

A stylized illustration of St. Mary's Church in Halesworth. The church is a Gothic Revival style building with a prominent square tower on the left side, topped with a cross. The main body of the church has a large, pointed-arch window with a decorative tracery. The background is a light blue sky with green trees on either side. A small flag with a red cross on a white field is flying from the top of the tower.
