Praying through Holy Week 2021

These prayers can be used throughout Holy Week to help you reflect on how the events in the Passion story affect our own faith and lives.

A Prayer about Betrayal

There are people we like,
and those we do not,
but the difficult situations arise when those we love turn against us for no logical reason.

We are hurt and angry at such betrayal, when someone who has shared our lives should now use that knowledge against us.

It is a broken relationship, Lord, almost impossible to repair.

That you should share bread and wine at the same table as Judas, knowing the secrets of his heart.

That you could share your love, knowing what was to follow on the road to Calvary, defies our human understanding.

And yet, Lord this is the road you would have us follow, the road that leads to the cross, the road that only makes sense, when seen through your eyes.

The road of sacrificial love .

A Prayer about Weakness

How often when weary do we sigh 'The spirit is willing,
but the body is weak.'
How often when in prayer are thoughts distracted by sounds or circumstance, or prayers diverted by trivial concerns.
Baggage carried with us rather than left at your feet.
How often do we find ourselves apologising to you, for our abbreviated prayer life.
And yet you draw us still to be in your presence, as you did the disciples at Gethsemene.
You want us to share in your life, to play our part.
You told your disciples to watch and pray, so that they might not fall into temptation.
Do you ask the same of us and do we also fail you each time we whisper
'The spirit is willing,
but the body is weak'?
Grant us the strength, Lord, of body and of spirit,
to offer you the sacrifice of our lives.

A prayer about Frailty

When the going gets tough the tough get going.
It is easy to say 'No'
to take the easy way out.
Easy to play safe,
and live to fight another day.
Like Peter, who loved you with such a passion, Lord, filled with such energy,
so impetuous,
ready to speak first,
and ask questions later.
Except when asked if he was with you, Lord.
Except when his faith was seriously challenged, when the road to the cross became dangerous.
You knew Peter, knew the calibre of the man and what would happen before the cock crowed twice.
But it didn't stop you choosing him, the rock upon which your Church would be built.
There is comfort for us, Lord, in Peter's frailty, reassurance that your love and confidence extends to both strong and frail, as you look to our potential, and in your love forget our momentary weakness.

Prayers for Good Friday

Lamb of God, you shed for me Your life upon a blood stained tree,
Your life for mine, love re-defined,
An offering, a ransom, release.
You gave so much, O Lamb of God.

Just as I am, I come

The doubts I have, the pain I feel,
When at your feet I humbly kneel, You take it all, both great and small,
Give freedom, forgiveness and peace.

I have the choice, O Lamb of God.

Just as I am, I come

Lamb of God, I hear your voice,
And hearing know I have a choice
To make a start, within my heart,
A willingness, to journey by faith.
You ask no more, O Lamb of God.

Just as I am, I come

By waters still, through fire and storm,
Your love continues to transform,
And with that call, you welcome all,
No barriers now, no limits, just grace.
No more excuses Lamb of God.

Just as I am, I come

In the darker moments, when clouds gather and the heaviness we feel seems overwhelming, remind us of your love,
carrying the weight of so much in that cross, embracing the world with arms outstretched that we might know freedom from the chains which now constrain us.
Bring us to your light, release our burdens and from despair bring hope.

Halleluia!
Jesus is risen!
He is risen indeed!

May this declaration resound not only in these walls but touch the lives of all we meet and forever be the truth of which we speak.
Your love,
once sown within a garden, tended for your own people, neglected and rejected, now spreads its sweet perfume in this place and wherever it is shown.

Halleluia!
Jesus is risen!
He is risen indeed!

From the darkness of the grave Blood poured out, a crown of thorns
Christ the Lord is risen to-day

ALL: Alleluia!

From the triumph that is won Over the power and fear of death
Christ the Lord is risen to-day

ALL: Alleluia!

Walking from the empty tomb Opening wide the gates of life
Christ the Lord is risen to-day

ALL: Alleluia!

Lord of life
You defeated death
To show that we can rise
From all that binds us to the world
Pride, envy, anger, fear
The debt of sin that holds us here
Christ the Lord is risen to-day
ALL: Alleluia!

Lord of life
You defeated death
To demonstrate a love that is Beyond our understanding That reaches out even to me Saving Grace to all who hear
Christ the Lord is risen to-day
ALL: Alleluia!

Lord of life
We pray for all who bring your word of life
As a light to those in darkness
For those who bring your word of peace
To those enslaved by fear
For those who bring your word of love
To those in need of comfort Lord of love and Lord of peace Lord of resurrection life
Be known
Through our lives and through your power
Christ the Lord is risen to-day
ALL: Alleluia!

Rejoice!

The stone is rolled away, grave clothes neatly folded,
no more the smell of death, behold the empty tomb!
Halleluia! (He is risen!)

Rejoice!

Scripture has been fulfilled, the sting of death is gone, the victory has been won, behold the risen Christ!
Halleluia! (He is risen!)

Rejoice!

The curtain's torn in two,
our God invites us in, Christ's sacrifice enough to wash away our sins!
